

Dorothy Jean Coates Scholarship at the Community Foundation for Northern Virginia

Scholarship Application

The Dorothy Jean Coates Scholarship Foundation Fund benefits nontraditional students enrolled in a college or university.

Dorothy Jean Brunson was born in Greenwood, SC and move to Washington, DC with her family where she met her husband Richard L. V. Coates, Jr. After the birth of her five children, she decided to earn her high school diploma. Dorothy Jean Coates completed her high school diploma in 1969 by attending night school at Cardoza high school in Washington, DC after the birth of her five children. In 1975 she enrolled in Northern Virginia Community College, taking one course per quarter while maintaining a career and family. She graduated with an Associates of Science in General Studies degree in 1993. She then enrolled in Mary Washington College in Fredericksburg, VA after graduating from Northern Virginia Community College to continue improving her education attainment until her death in 1998. She was truly a life-long learner.

Amount

One non-renewable scholarship of $1,000 to $2,000 is awarded each year.
